THE PAINTER PRINCE

Once upon a time there was a girl who was washing her dirty laundry in a short river near a beautiful bridge. As soon as she finishes to wash it, the clothes turned into wonderful dresses, as the ones of a real princess.

On the other side of the river, there was a boy with a pallet and a paintbrush who was painting the beautiful landscape.

Above, there was a nice castle.

Suddenly, it sounded some music that came from the castle and the boy crossed the bridge. He met the girl and he asked her if she wanted to go with him to the castle. The girl dressed one of her changed dresses and there they went...

They came in, they started to dance and soon they get in love. The boy gave a kiss to the pretty girl and everything changed from there on. The paintbrush turned into a sword and his old clothes into new ones, like the ones of a prince.

Everybody in the room was surprised as they saw the real prince, who had disappeared a long time ago.

He likes very much to paint and he had left the castle to go painting all over the world.

After, the prince started to paint, the people who were in the party, in a realistic way.

Some days after, the prince and the girl decided to get married and to live in the castle, but the prince continued to paint, and he discovered a new way of painting which started to be called "Impressionism".

So, he painted this nice bridge which get them together forever.
